ALCUR is a specialty fund pursuant to the Swedish Mutual Funds Act (2004:46). It is the responsibility of every person interested in investing in ALCUR to ensure that the investment takes place in accordance with applicable laws and other regulations. Foreign law may have the effect of preventing investors outside Sweden from investing. ALCUR FONDER AB has no responsibility whatsoever to verify whether an investment made from outside Sweden takes place in accordance with the laws of the relevant country. Disputes or claims concerning the fund shall be resolved according to Swedish law and exclusively by Swedish courts of law. There is no guarantee that an investment in ALCUR cannot result in a loss. This applies irrespective of otherwise positive performance on the financial markets. Past performance is no guarantee for future results. Information from the fund shall not be considered a recommendation to invest in ALCUR. Every person considering purchasing units in the fund must make an independent assessment of an investment in ALCUR and the risks associated therewith. An investment in ALCUR should be seen as a long-term investment.
